

Attention Parents of School-Aged Children

If this image makes your head spin, you're not alone!!

Like it or not, our children are exposed to a social media onslaught. New apps emerge nearly every day, most of which we do not fully understand.

Here is a way to help your family navigate some potentially dangerous waters...

Baltimore County Police Department
Presents an
*Open Forum on Internet Safety & Current Trends
Which Place our Teens at Risk

When & Where?

January 20 at 7:00 p.m.
Redeemer Classical
Christian School
Aimee B Foard Field House
6433 Mt. Vista Rd.
Kingsville, MD 21087

Who Should Attend?

Parents of students attending Kingsville area faith-based schools are encouraged to attend.
Please bring your middle and high school age students.

(Although the presenter will be sensitive to content appropriate for our faith-based community, some material would not be appropriate for elementary-age children.)

For more information, call Kate Kick at 410-592-9625 or email katekick@rccs.org